

Activities & Resources for Seniors

Albert Lea Senior Center

The Albert Lea Senior Center offers social activities for seniors. The center holds weekly craft classes, card games, Bingo, exercise programs, and support groups as well as monthly casino trips, birthday parties, and one-day motorcoach trips. Other special events are planned throughout the year. Membership to the Senior Center is just $30.00 annually. The Center is located in the Skyline Plaza, 1739 W. Main Street. Call for more information (507) 373-0704.

Senior Resources of Freeborn County

Senior Resources handles four main responsibilities: advocacy, chore services, ride services and providing a network for caregivers. Their office is a one-stop shop for Freeborn County residents seeking any assistance on matters from housing to health care. The caregiver's network provides encouragement and support for those caring for loved ones. Their office is conveniently located at the Vitality Center at 314 S. Broadway. The phone number is (507) 377-7433.
