Be advised that riparian property owners have the right of first refusal until March 29th. If you are a renter of a riparian dock space and are not the property owner, there is a risk of being displaced each season. *Please note: The permittee shall be responsible for the removal from the lake, the lakeshore, the public property or the property under the public control any dock, buoy, structure or other obstruction upon the termination of his annual permit on October 15th of each year or upon the revocation of his permit.
INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS
The dock permittee must provide proof of liability coverage for the dock. A minimum of $1,000,000 of liability coverage is required. Your policy must specifically list the address of your dock (dock number). Proof of coverage must be provided to the Recreation Office showing coverage for the entire boating season (April 15th – October 15th). In some cases depending on your insurance company, this coverage is provided under your homeowner/renter policy and requires you to add the dock as an additional location. Notify your insurance agent that as a dock permittee, you are considered an owner of that dock. It is your responsibility to maintain this coverage and not allow it to lapse.
